

Project Euler – Problem 92 Solution

Square Digit Chains

This solution is similar to the one used in problem 74. It uses the same method in order to compute the chain. However this is not necessary in this problem, as we can just get new elements until we end up in element 1 or 89. Of course, this method does unnecessary computation and its solution could be much simpler, but it's nice using existing code.